8 - What aspect of Prof. /Dr. Saralees Nadarajah's approach to teaching best helped your learning?

Response Rate	128/221 (57.92%)
---------------	------------------

- From my standpoint, Dr. Saralees Nadarajah has been the greatest teacher/lecturer in the university. The support he provides to the students is remarkable. He provides feedback for the coursework on the same day which shows how hardworking and passionate he is. He is always kind and makes us feel comfortable when having discussion with him. Furthermore, he is always willing to help when we have some difficult time.
- Lectures are very engaging. Very clear explanations.
- Very approachable
- quiz
- Very clear teaching, many many examples and constant feedback through quizzes. Incredible effort and lectures are engaging. Arguably my favourite lecturer in Statistics
- His constant availability to us. He replies to emails in a matter of minutes at any time on any day.
- Amazingly helpful! Will reply to emails 24/7 and has lots of very useful resources on his website. Best lecturer.
- The pacing of his lectures were excellent.
- have random in-class exercise and marked.
- excellent
- He is Clear and Concise
- He is friendly in the class and that helps us to feel comfortable learning from his lectures.
- The handnotes are helpful.
- EVERYTHING
- His quiz helps me to review every two weeks, which is a nice approach.
- Very helpful, enthusiastic.
- He was very helpful and approachable
- He explained things very clearly and was extremely dedicated to providing helpful feedback very quickly. Also his approach to note taking is much more effective than reading from slides
- How enthusiastic he is and how determined he is to enable our learning.
- I liked the fact there were a lot of examples to demonstrate the theory of the module.
- He's always happy to help, lectures are at a good pace so you can understand everything, he's so supportive, dedicated so much time to his students! The best lecturer I've had by far!
- I can't speak highly enough of Dr Nadarajah, who is, in my opinion, the most dedicated lecturer in the department. He is always very helpful and is passionate about his subject; a credit to the university.
- His patient teaching and sufficient work.
- He fully explains everything in an easy to understand manner with no assumption on previous knowledge. He provides the most support and feedback out of any lecturer I have had.
- Friendly face and understanding of all abilities.
- give examples.
- he is really kind professor and gives me a lot of help. by learning from him, I solve a lot of questions and get some excellent study experiences.
- clear hand-writing and examples given
- Saralees is the best lecturer I've ever had. He is so concise and thorough and I feel on top of all of the content, because the lectures are so well structured. The feedback I've received is always so quick and because it's so quick, I really learn and understand everything straight away. If it takes too long to get things back, I forget how I was stuck. He answers emails within 10 minutes which is so helpful.
- Excellent!
- his good explanation nice and quick response helps me a lot
- course organization
- very patience nice prof i have seen !
- Dedicated to ensuring all students receive fantastic feedback on their work
- 1. The small quiz each two weeks 2. tutorials where both give us time to do the question and give the answer
- His on time feedback and communication with you.
- Cherish every single feedback and comment on his teaching performance.
- Detailed blackboard, weekly homework.
- Really good at explaining the content in detail.
- Saralees' lectures were thoroughly enjoyable and succinct. The problem classes were just as useful.
- The questions that we have to hand in and how he breaks down each question I to easy to understand steps to follow.
- Tutorial and after-class support.
- Quick feedback
- Nice easygoing and helpful when providing materials
- He can kindly answer our questions in details and quickly.
- Very friendly helped and professional
- The handwritten notes and videos for both the lectures and tutorial classes really helped me to do the revision.
- explain in details, very patience to student, and have high efficiency with giving back feedback.

- Very thorough and clear in his explanations.
- He is very concerned about the students' learning and curriculum understanding, and will provide students with a lot of practical exercises to consolidate knowledge.
- wonderful
- He is close to the student and interacts well with student
- No one at the University of Manchester returns mark, feedback and scanned work to you on the same day except Prof saralees.
- Always willing to help and gives you access to all the resources you need.
- He is always there to help his pupils. He puts a lot of effort into providing us with the best help.
- kind teacher,
- Very very responsible and all material can be found online
- Caring, hardworking and will check on you
- Prof. Saralees Nadarajah shows a lot of interest for every student in the class. This helped me because he was willing to explain to me personally everytime I had something to ask.
- Dr Saralees Nadarajah organized the courses really reasonably, which helps me learn the course step by step. I am really glad that I have a teacher like him.
- Dr Saralees is very responsible and diligent, and he put a lot of efforts into teaching as well as feedback of the quizzes, which are extremely helpful.
- handwriting notes in the class and online supporting materials
- Dr. Saralees Nadarajah's is one of the most kindhearted and responsible lecturers I have met in UoM. He always lectures very carefully and has prepared sufficient materials related to the course as well as uploading them in time. In addition, he always welcomes us to his office whenever we have any questions. I am deeply moved by his patience and responsibility, which also inspire me to study hard in this course.
- His teaching is excellent and is the best teacher I have met. He give us very helpful materials and explain all our questions as quick as he can, we always receive his reply within a minutes. His example class is the best and very useful as well. He also upload his podcast to the blackboard and if we cannot understand all we can also listen it again when we doing private study. Overall, his teaching is perfect. Thank you so much.
- Everything He's always available for us to ask for help He course website is amazing Has so much on there so we can practise alot
- Very fast feedback, extremely devoted to helping us even at weekends, really good online resources.
- Interacts well with students Provides sufficient material on blackboard
- clear course content patience for examples and difficulties timely feedback
- Always explains in great detail with real world examples.
- Dr. Saralees Nadarajah gives enough examples during lecture to help us understand better as least it's the best way for me, and always responds to my email really quick and gives very useful feedback to help.
- Great feedback and approach to being helpful
- He loves his job, true credit to the university. Undying commitment to students
- Provided very useful examples and clear notes with useful information applied all time.
- His work ethic. Work was marked, scanned and returned very quickly. And he also uploads every single resource that would ever be needed.
- Every topic is explained very well. He is very kind and generous and provides help when required. The examples sheets and quiz can be challenging which does stimulate our minds, but if we find something difficult, he's there to answer our problems. Whilst I had health problems, Saralees provided lots of methods to help me catch up with missing work. He continuously asks how we are finding other modules and said he is willing to help with other problems we may have. Prof. Nadarajah will remain as one of the best lecturers one could possibly ever have, and my favourite lecturer.
- He always takes the time to ensure that we have understood all the concepts and he's very kind and understanding when I need help with this unit and areas outside this module and university.
- Give me a lot of help when I was struggled in Math questions.
- Very keen to help students, goes above and beyond to provide support. He also marks all work in a very quick manner with corrections that make it easy to see where you have gone wrong and improve your work.
- He was always welcoming and willing to help
- the tutorials are recorded
- Everything! -Content being uploaded online straight after the lecture - Every Past Paper from every year with solutions - Solutions to example sheets and uploaded frequently - Every Lecture is podcasted -Every Tutorial is podcasted (Massive help) - Always available in office until 6pm and very welcoming - Quick e-mail replies, helps if im struggling with any questions - Perfect course 10/10
- The vast online course materials available.
- The very fast feedback and detailed explaining was very effective in helping my learning.
- Saralees is the best lecturer/teacher many of us have ever had. The e-learning resources and lecture style make this course the most manageable I've ever taken (along with Statistical Methods also taught by him). Interesting content too,
- Feedback, commitment as a teacher, caring about students & their success. Exceptional lecturer
- Everything, wouldn't change this unit at all
- He is patient, responsible and professional. He is always in his office and students can ask him question without appointment. Thanks him a lot. He also scan our quiz and give the feedback very soon. He send us the reminding emails regularly. The materials he provides are full of details and we can practice and improve from the materials.
- Writing lecture notes by hand is so excellent!
- Constantly keeping engaged with students, in and out of lecture/university hours.
- Saralees Nadarajah is a very responsible teacher. He always gives feedback on the day of assignment, which is very helpful for us. And the lectures and course materials provided by the teacher on the blackboard are very detailed and help us a lot! In the end, Saralees Nadarajah is really very responsible for our courses. We can ask him questions 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, he always works in the office and gives us help. All in all, he is the best teacher I have ever seen!
- Dr. Saralees is the best teacher I have had since coming to The University of Manchester. He makes a tremendous effort to ensure that we do well in the module. His teaching technique is informative as much as exciting, and he is able to make us understand the most difficult concepts with minimal effort. This has obviously helped my learning a lot and, without a shadow of any doubt, I will surely miss having him as my teacher.
- The quick responses and feedback along with my scanned work is very helpful. The recorded example classes I really good to look over. I like the number of examples we go over which helps me further understand the course content.

- Detailed explanations
- The weekly quizzes helped show where you were at and what you need to know
- He taught so good in class and very helpful if you ask him any questions.
- Clear communication, well organised notes, friendly and approachable, open to all students
- Mr.Nadarajah provides detailed material for every lecture and tutorial.
- All of the fomular are delivered clearly and explained well, with a lot of examples.
- He is really good. Always be there for us.
- the best teacher
- The fact that Saralees provides all the worksheets, solutions, past examinations and even the scanned notes of each of our lectures just makes studying so much more easier than other courses.
- Excellent skills on proving, Perfect structure of teaching, provide significant numbers of documents that can support our studies.
- all the things are really helpful,online materials include everything I need. I am so glad have a professor like you,thank you very much.
- Step by step methodologies to questions
- Lectures notes, podcasts everything
- Perfect
- The podcast for the lectures and turtorials are well documented so it is easy to look over things that baffle me.
- Very approachable. Always willing to answer questions in relation. To the course as well as offering general help.
- -He always makes himself available for seeking help, 24/7 emailing and even willing to take appointments in weekends. -Clear, well structured, well documented notes. -Very good email communication always keeping students up to date with classes, tests and assignments. -Returned marks for assignments, and feedback on the same day that they are handed in, unlike any other lecturer I have ever had. My favourite lecturer, would be very happy to have him again :).
- His notes were fantastic. The pace of lectures may be considered a bit too slow.
- His calm approach to every single question, coupled with his brilliant explanation through precise working are what helped me the most.
- I like that he podcasts everything both lectures and tutorials and has all materials online for revision purposes and so it's clear what we have to know for the exam
- Really goes the extra mile to help, responding to emails quickly - even outside of office hours. Also marks fortnightly assessments for over 200 students in a few hours, providing not only a mark but an annotated, scanned copy of your work to help amend errors.
- very passionate teaching! 10/10!
- Willing to go the extra mile for every student and his resources!
- full solutions given and all materials available online
- He provides excellent feedback quickly and efficiently. Also he is always available to contact and ask questions which is great
- Saralees' student interaction and support is unprecedented, he genuinely gives more to each of his students than a private tutor would! Saralees loves his work, which is evident through his punctuality, engagement and interaction during lectures and tutorials. Saralees posts results for Quizzes and Coursework within hours! I honestly don't know how one man can mark, grade and correct over a hundred pieces of work almost immediately! The course content is phenomenal, past papers, mark schemes and handwritten lecture notes are available from many years past allowing you to work on if needed. Overall, I took Saralees' Statistical Methods class in 2016/2017, then took a placement for a year and he recognised and said hello as we walked out during the first lecture of the semester, he makes the course interesting and something to look forward to.
- Lectures and hand written notes.
- He gives you everything you need to know
- The immediate feedback
- Very organised notes and loads of material to help when revising.
- Dr. Saralees is a very helpful and supportive lecturer, he leads the course in a well-organised structure and was very dedicated in giving feedbacks to students. Overall, he is an excellent teacher!
- that he has the ability to explain complex problems in a clear orderly manner making it easier to understand also the weekly quizzes were a great way of me to check how well i am grasping what we are being taught
- everything. he is just such an amazing lecturer
- He never rests
- His constant help and feedback and extremely fast responses to any queries.
- Lectures and content are clear, structured and has a good flow.

- So many resources available, and Saralees is very easy to contact if you need help
- It built on what Prof. Saralees taught. It was interesting, challenging yet made sense. It also built my basic mathematical skills that I hadn't worked on in years.
- Really interesting module. Lots of resources and extra reading available. Help available whenever needed.
- Gives background information on how the methods we are learning have and can be applied in the real world
- The notes and lectures help a lot.
- Excellent!
- KNOWLEDGE
- Great feedback.
- The lecturer was the best part
- Skills and better understanding of using distribution functions to show various things
- The lecture encourages us and is available at all times. A good man to connect with.
- I really like the lecturer, who made the unit easy to understand.
- Everything! His quick feedback, his support and his dedication.
- Course materials are readily available online, with detailed solutions to example sheets and past papers.
- He always gives our marks within the same day we submitting our work.
- get some practical methods to measure financial risk
- further studies about statistics and good foundation for our learning about statistics
- He is a very patient and responsible teacher. He marks very quickly for quiz and test every time. He updates all of the materials in time and his handouts is quite useful.
- teaching method
- Lots of online material. Bi-weekly quizzes were great.
- The course website is great: both the materials provided and the speed of upload the materials. The tutorials are excellent.
- Very worthy
- Learn more knowledge about the relationship between finance and mathematics.
- Saralees!
- The course materials and the teaching.
- The amount of resources is very useful. Having all past papers and answers provides a great way to revise for exams which isn't available in other modules.
- Well structured and interesting
- It help me learn a lot about finance
- All the useful materials are uploaded on time.
- Course support and help frl'm the lecturer
- Saralees' teaching and notes are very clear. Online resources very complete and helpful.
- This course helps me in logic and thinking, And it improve my ability of calculating.
- everything is good
- Saralees mentioned some real-world cases which hit my curiosity and help in my career choices.
- Excellent feedback.
- Most hardworking and best professor I know
- This course taught me about some methods of the extreme value and how to value the financial risks of the portfolio.
- The explanations for concepts and example sheets are good to understand. Handwriting notes are easy to understand.
- This unit is very helpful for our future study and work development.
- I can learn this course clearly since the materials given to help us are very useful and entirely, and I also found my confidence from him, I can do good on study, to some extent, it benefits me on all the subject. And this unit is the one I understand best since the good study material he given to us.
- Theory applied in practical troubles
- Interactive teaching
- Good background information
- It has built upon mathematical processes I have learnt throughout my degree and applied them to real world financial situations
- It provides a good insight to have the real world work in terms of risk. It is a very nice unit and follows on nicely from Statistical Methods. The quizzes can be simulating and challenging which has a right balance. It is a great way to help us keep on top of our work.
- I really valued Saralees' teaching and guidance throughout this unit, he was very helpful and very approachable whenever I required assistance
- in this unit, I have learned something about extreme value and these knowledge are useful for my further studying and job
- Lots of support was given to students and the lecturer was always available and willing to help students. All notes and online materials (eg. podcasts and past paper solutions) were readily available and this makes going over work and revising to further your understanding a lot easier.
- I appreciated it when he took time to teach me before the midterm test

- I valued how the content was linked to real world scenarios in the lectures.
- The detailed online resources and solutions were very helpful.
- Saralees is the best lecturer/teacher many of us have ever had. His dedication to the course and to his student is unparalleled eg. personalised feedback to all 200+ students the same day coursework is submitted. He is very supportive and his emails are often a helpful reminder and keep you constantly on top of the content. At the same time, when I've fallen behind he's been more than happy to help me catch up.
- The lecturer
- Everything
- This course is well organised and the materials are full of details and the lecturer is excellent as well. Also the tutorial is recorded in the podcast video, which is helpful as well. The lecturer sets small quiz on a regular basis, which "force" us to do the revision and we are benefited from this.
- The course is good and well organised.
- The pre planned structure of each lecture coupled with the lecturers experience of teaching this module for a number of years.
- The course content is very practical. Every two weeks of quiz and weekly tutorials help us understand the knowledge.
- I found this course very interesting because it shows us how mathematics can be applied in the real world to see anomalies in financial sectors, for example, and by so doing we can catch out financial crimes such as fraud.
- I enjoyed the type of statistics that is involved. I like the formula sheets that are given prior exams and midterms, this allows me to learn what I need to early on. I like how the quizzes are spread over every 2 weeks which allows me to keep on top of work without feeling too much time pressure.
- Saralees constant commitment to his students and always there to help. He's the only lecturer who has taught me that I feel actually cares about how his students are doing.
- Classes and tutorials.
- N/A
- Very helpful.
- usefull for further study
- Best teacher ever
- It is my second course with Saralees and like I mentioned last year, I believe he is one of the best teachers the School of Mathematics has, very attentive to student's needs be it academically or personal.
- the course teaching core idea of financial risk which is directly related to my further study of postgraduate so it is so important to me to have this modules
- really useful and could help me to get more skills
- Structured syllabus Quizzes help keep track of coverage in the syllabus
- Everything
- Excellent
- I valued the insight into extreme values and financial risk.
- The online prevalence of all the notes and podcasts. This was excellent. Also Prof Nadarajah is good with students.
- Statistical approach to finance.
- The weekly quizzes are good at keeping me on top of the work and the midterm was a good way of making sure I'm on track
- the biweekly quiz to keep content fresh in my mind
- Everything.
- Great
- All the information available on the website
- How Saralees provides so much help if you are stuck with anything.
- I valued the teaching from my lecturer also the resources that my lecturer has made available the use of podcast during the lecture allows me to go over what i learned in the lecture again in my own term and gain a better understanding of something i may not have understood the first time round
- Well structured

- I think Dr Saralees Nadarajah did very good in very aspects.
- no
- should give more reading for MSc students
- This unit taught by Dr Saralees is prefect!
- Electronic version of notes are a bit difficult to read. It would be nice if the electronic version of notes are made easier to read. There are too many people in the same support class. It would be nice if the students can be divided into smaller groups to take support classes.
- It may help us understand the content more intuitively if the unit could combine more practical problems. But actually, it is already an excellent unit.
- What he has done is perfect enough. I am greatly appreciated for him.
- Nothing . It is excellent

- I personally don't think this unit needs improving. I think it is fantastically taught and the content is very interesting.
- For the most part, I feel this unit is very good. If there is an room for improvement, it could be that the content of the module could be a little but more challenging so I can expand my knowledge and skills
- ACTUALLY,I DONT THINK THERE ARE SOMETHING NEED TO BE IMPROVED. VERY GOOD LECTURER
- Nothing much, he's a great teacher
- nothing ,everything was amazing
- Nothing! Best unit ive done along with stats methods (Also with Saralees)
- Make the in class test/early quizzes more challenging.

- Nothing. Please nominate him for Prime Minister!
- Be more clear when changing between topics/chapters
- Nothing, honestly perfect
- It is excellent. no advice.
- Everything is good! Maybe the course can involve more practical examples.
- Perfect tbh :)
- Perfect teacher, all aspects are very good!
- I am very satisfied with this unit and I have no complaints about it. As much as nothing is perfect, I wouldn't change a thing.
- Some of the quizzes were very hard and took too much time for 2 marks. I think I would prefer one midterm worth 20% instead but that's my personal opinion.

- Nothing at all
- Nothing can complain
- More theory please. Less time spent on examples which involve the same method.
- The teaching of concepts to students could be more engaging and less showing.
- The weekly quizzes can be a little too difficult for where we are in the course

- i feel like Saralees Nadarajah is the best lecturer i've had throughout my three years of university and can think of what else to do to improve on what already is an excellently taught module due to his compassion and genuine care forthe students
- Smaller tutorial sizes
- Nothing. Everything is done to a high standard and excellent feedback for quizzes and midterm test. Also responds quick to emails.
